

Craven County Center
North Carolina Cooperative Extension and
Mount Olive College Agribusiness Center present

Planning for the Future of Your Farm

Two Part Series

Thursday, May 30, 2013, 7 p.m.

Craven County Center

300 Industrial Drive New Bern, NC

Part I:

Present Use Value Tax Program

Michael Brown – Supervisor, Real Property Tax and Use
Program, North Carolina Department of Revenue

Forestry and Present Use Value Tax

Allan Plaster, Consulting Forester and President Elect NC
Forestry Association

More information is available at: www.mocagbiz.com/farmtransition

The second part of this series will be August 29, 2013

Topics will be:

Taxes and Estate Planning

Farm Transition Strategies and Tools

MOUNT OLIVE COLLEGE
LOIS G. BRITT
AGRIBUSINESS CENTER

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.