

FARM TRANSITION WORKSHOP SCHEDULED FOR FARMERS AND LANDOWNERS

Tuesday August 13, 2013 – 9AM to Noon

Lois G. Britt Agribusiness Center, Raper Hall

Mount Olive College's Lois G. Britt Agribusiness Center, with support from USDA, will conduct another farm transition workshop for farmers and landowners. Workshop speakers will address the following topics:

Family Meeting – Guido van der Hoeven, NCSU

Farm Transfer Scenarios – Andrew Branan, Attorney

How to Transfer Assets and Not Debt – Ted Feitshans, NCSU

This workshop will provide landowners with information to start the conversation with family; illustrate different farm transition scenarios and impacts; and discuss real property, titled property and personal property transfer.

Registration is required as a meal and workbooks will be provided attendees. Registration deadline is August 6th. Contact Edward Olive at the Agribusiness Center (919) 658-7510 to register.
