

Planning for the Future of Your Farm

Do you understand what farm transition tools and options are available to you?

Have you discussed with your family your wishes for your land and assets?

Do you know what you own?

Do you want to make sure your family is well cared for and able to make good decisions about your land and other assets?

It was your grandfather's farm; make sure it will be your grandchildren's farm.

The Lois G. Britt Agribusiness Center at Mount Olive College will conduct a workshop to provide information that you and your family can use to chart the future of your farm and land assets.

Tuesday August 13, 2013 in Raper Hall, Mount Olive College
652 R. B. Butler Drive, Mount Olive, NC
9AM - Noon

Registration is required. Registration deadline is August 6th.

For information and to register call: Edward Olive at 919-658-7510

A meal and workshop materials will be provided.

More information is available at: www.mocagbiz.com/farmtransition. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.
