

January 14, 2013

On Tuesday, January 29, 2013, North Carolina Cooperative Extension – Lenoir County Center, will host our next Forestry educational meeting. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m. ending with a sponsored lunch served at noon. The meeting will be held at the Lenoir County Extension Center located at 1791 Hwy 11/55, Kinston, NC.

This meeting will include information concerning estate planning and income taxes associated with timber sales. Dr. Guido van der Hoven, Extension Economics Specialist at NCSU, will discuss estate planning and decision-making. Rick Hamilton, NCSU Extension Forestry Specialist, will lead the discussion for timber sales taxation. .

If you have an interest in developing your forestland or forest resources into a profit, this meeting is for you. In addition, making the best decision with your property for the future is more important now than ever before!

Please call our office by January 25, 2013, to make your meal reservations.

Sincerely,

Mark M. Keene
